Assistant / Associate Professor - Academic Medical Oncologist

Date Posted: 09/28/2020

Closing Date: 11/02/2020, 11:59PM EDT

Req ID: 1194

Job Category: Faculty - Clinical

Faculty/Division: Faculty of Medicine

Department: Dept of Medicine - Division of Medical Oncology & Hematology

Hospital Affiliation: Sunnybrook Health Science Centre

Campus: St. George (Downtown Toronto)

Description:

The Department of Medicine at Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre (SHSC), in conjunction with the Faculty of Medicine at the University of Toronto, is seeking a full-time Academic Medical Oncologist. The successful candidate must be eligible for a full-time clinical academic appointment as a Clinician Investigator at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor. It is expected that the position will be approximately 40% clinical, 40% research, 10% teaching and 10% administration. Expected start date March 1, 2021, or shortly thereafter.

We are seeking a physician who will foster excellence in research. The successful candidate will participate in the clinical and academic activities of the Odette Cancer Centre (OCC). Clinical activities include inpatient and outpatient care at SHSC and OCC. Previous experience and expertise in gastrointestinal cancer is required, with a second tumour site negotiable. As well, within the allocated clinical time, candidates will participate on the medical oncology call roster. Preference will be given to individuals with an interest in clinical trials and translational research, along with demonstrated excellence in carrying out research. Research accomplishments include peer-reviewed publications, research grants, presentations at significant conferences, and awards and accolades.

The successful candidate must hold a MD degree, have or be eligible for licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario (CPSO) as well as Fellowship certification with the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada in both Internal Medicine and Medical Oncology.

Based at the Sunnybrook campus, this position is funded under an Alternative Payment Plan (APP) through the Ontario Oncology Association (Provincial Oncology AFP) agreement with the Ministries of Health and Long-Term Care. Estimated remuneration will be in the range of $350,000-$400,000 annually and commensurate with academic rank, qualifications and experience. The successful candidate will also be eligible to participate in the Ontario Oncology Association's group medical, dental and life insurance benefit plans.

Applications will be accepted until November 2, 2020. Should you be interested in this opportunity, please forward a one page statement of interest, curriculum vitae and the names and contact information of three referees to:
